The purpose of the Fell's Point Homeowners' Association is to promote the interests of resident homeowners in the Lower Fell's Point Historic District. The FPHA recognizes that Fell's Point is a unique, historic community of residents, artisans, shopkeepers and businesses. It embraces the principle that the long-term welfare of the community is best served by supporting the common goals of social fellowship, community pride, responsible property management and development, providing for a clean, safe, healthy environment and the enhancement of visiting, working and living in Fell's Point.

Voting membership is open to primary-residence owner/occupants who live within the Lower Fell's Point Historic District.

NOTE: Voting rights become effective 28 days after membership is paid.

I want to become a member of the FPHA in the following category:
